PROJECT TITLE: ACORN COFFEE SHOP

SQUARE FOOTAGE: 1850 SF

PROJECT BUDGET: $795,000

DID YOU WORK WITH AN OUTSIDE FIRM OR CONSULTANT? IF YES, LIST COMPANY NAME: YES, CORLEY REDFOOT ARCHITECTS

PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

The library had an underutilized space in the Koenigsberger Learning Center that we renovated into the new space for The Acorn coffee shop. When we relocated the coffee shop from its downtown location to this central spot in the heart of campus, we worked to rebrand their logo and interior to a more upscale look. The library is one of the first stops on campus tours and the Acorn coffee shop would now have lots of new visitors. We added a new outdoor patio with tables and chairs, along with outdoor lounge seating.

The interior project scope incorporated new and reused equipment, new finishes, millwork, lighting and furniture, as well as custom branding and graphics. The custom graphics and wallcovering highlight the oaks of campus, reinforcing the Acorn brand and inviting visitors to explore the many oak varieties across campus. Salvaged wood from campus trees was used for custom tables made by a local vendor.

During construction, a request was made for a reservable meeting room. We wanted to preserve the open feeling of the coffee shop, along with the natural light from the large windows, while keeping the space open during the day for the coffee shop and during off hours for students. We designed a custom oak community table that could double as meeting space and added a banquette along the side wall to maximize seating. Accents of maroon and touches of gold were used to enhance a touch of school spirit in the heart of campus.
